

Biography

Born in 1984, Noémie Goudal currently lives and works in Paris. She graduated from the Royal College of Art in 2010 with an MA in photography. Goudal has received numerous awards including the 'Royal College of Art Sustain Award' (2010) and the 'HSBC Prix pour la Photographie' in 2013.

Since then, she held solo shows in major public institutions such as the New Art Gallery Walsall (2014), FOAM Museum, Amsterdam (Spring 2015), the Photographers' Gallery, London (Autumn 2015) and most recently at Le Bal, Paris (2016) and at the Abbaye de Jumièges (2017).

She has exhibited in many group shows, including 'Out of Focus' at the Saatchi Gallery, London, 'Vita

Vitale' at the Venice Biennale's Azerbaijan Pavilion, 2015 and 'Constructs- Constructions' at the Kiran Nadar Museum, Delhi, India.

Her work was acquired internationally in both public and private collections, including the Saatchi Gallery (UK), Kiran Nadar Collection (India), FOAM Museum (The Netherlands), the Conran Collection (UK), Winterthur Museum (Switzerland), Wilson Collection (UK), The Drake Collection (The Netherlands), Artwise Curators (UK), Musée de La Roche-sur-Yon (France) and the Hiscox Collection (France).

She is represented by Edel Assanti in London and Les Filles du Calvaire in Paris.
